◇HiPeC Practitioner's seminar

■The 1st Practitioner's seminar
“Peacebuilding and Security Sector Governance in Asia”

[Time] August 3 to 5, 2010
[Place] JICA-Chugoku international center seminar room
[Theme] “Peacebuilding and Security Sector Governance in Asia”
[Language] English
[Outline]
The 1st HiPeC Practitioner's seminar titled “Security Sector Governance and Peacebuilding in Asia” was held for three days from August 3-5. 12 guest scholars delivered lectures on the problem of governance of security sector in the context of Asia, which covered the case studies of Philippines, Thailand, Indonesia, East Timor, Sri Lanka, and Nepal. It was a vibrant gathering that dealt with the difficulties and the peculiarities of security sectors and their roles in building peace in Asian context.

■The 2nd HiPeC Practitioners Seminar
“The Voice from AFGHANISTAN -Dialogue with Hiroshima People about Peace Revival”

[Time] December 6, 2010
1st session= PM13:00 - 16:30, 2nd session= PM18:00-19:30.
[Place] Hiroshima Chamber of Commerce and Industry
[Speakers] Mr. Amir Foladi(Aga Khan fund), Shamsul Islam (Educator)
[Language] 1st session: English, 2nd session: Japanese (consecutive translation from local language)
[Chairman] Yoshida Osamu(Professor of Hiroshima University, Chair of HiPeC)
Two native guests who continue the peace revival activities at grass-roots level were invited from Afghanistan to Hiroshima. Mr. Amir Foladi engages in the preservation activity for stone statue of Buddha in Bamiyan. Mr. Islam engages as a lecturer for many years in local Islamic school.

Although Afghanistan society is very often portrayed as an entirely war-torn country, people have developed cultural activities on the basis of “local relation” for reviving peace at grass-roots level of the society.

The seminar was divided into two sessions. The first session was for researcher and practitioner and the second session for general audience of Hiroshima. Especially, in the 2nd session, the raw voice of our guests was translated simultaneously by native interpreter into Japanese. Many insightful responses from audiences were addressed.
